

Cambria County Elder Justice Seminar

April 24, 2014

Johnstown Senior Center

(Lunch Provided)

10:00am - 1:00pm

Registration 8:45am

Please RSVP by Calling

(814) 536-9009

No Later Than April 15, 2014

Speakers

Welcoming Remarks

Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag

M. Veil Griffith, Ed.D.

Area Agency on Aging Cambria County

Principles & Practices for Elder Justice

Ronald Costen, Ph.D., Esq

PA Dept. of Aging Institute on Protective Services at Temple University

Pennsylvania's Commitment to Insuring that Older

Persons are not Abused, Neglected,

Exploited or Abandoned

Denise Getgen, RN, Bureau Chief

PA Dept. of Aging, Consumer Protection

Special Legal Needs of Older Persons Including Powers of Attorney, Other Legal Documents & Guardianship

Honorable Patrick Kiniry

Attorney Joseph Messina

Scams and Other Crimes Against the Elderly

Attorney Heath Long

First Assistant District Attorney

Bank Fraud Scams Affecting the Elderly

Michael S. Andrasick

VP and Security Officer

Amieriserv Financial

Affordable Health Care Act & Implications for Care

Bobbi Farabaugh

American Insurance Marketing

General Assembly Legislation to Address the Rights of the Elderly

Representative Bryan Barbin

State Resources for the Elderly

Senator John Wozniak

Closing Remarks

Cambria County Commissioners

President Commissioner Douglas Lengenfelder,

Mark Wissinger, Tom Chernisky

A Time For Justice

Combating Elder Abuse in Cambria County

A Time for Justice is a seminar to inform, protect, and prevent Cambria County older adults and those with disabilities from abuse and exploitation. By joining with experts from across the state and local leaders we bring abuse out of the shadows into a position where it can be stopped and prevented.

Sponsors

Cambria County
Elder Abuse Task Force

